(CCSI) and designated school attorney stating that a hearing is being convened because the Department of Diné Education was *"provided official confirmation by the Navajo Election Administration that Chilchibeto Community School, Inc. does not have a quorum of governing board members. The Navajo Nation Board of Education further orders that the Superintendent of Schools of Department of Diné Education and/or designee shall assume and execute the full legal authority of the Chilchibeto Community School, Inc. (CCSI) governing board, until such time as the cause(s) for the assumption of the governing board has been lifted.
4. The Department recognizes that the remaining school board members were vested with certain responsibilities by action of the full lawfully convened governing board prior to the loss of quorum. RE: Waiver of Due Process Hearing and Temporary Assumption Control of Chlichinbeto Community School, Inc.

Dear Ms. Anderson:

Please be advised that I am Chlichinbeto Community School, Inc.'s authorized attorney. Chlichinbeto Community School, Inc. is in receipt of a due process hearing letter regarding the assumption of control of Chlichinbeto Community School, Inc. by the Navajo Nation. The Navajo Nation has deemed it necessary to assume control of Chlichinbeto Community School, Inc. because the School does not have a quorum of the school board. The lack of a quorum will seriously and substantially impair the operations of the School, potentially placing it at significant risk of loss (financially, legally, etc.), warranting immediate action by the Department of Diné Education.

Pursuant to paragraph 4 of the due process hearing letter, Chlichinbeto Community School, Inc. agrees that a temporary assumption of control of the school board by the Navajo Nation through the Department of Diné Education ("Department") and a waiver of the governing board's right to a due process hearing is in the best interest of the governing board and its students. Therefore, Chlichinbeto Community School, Inc. proposes and agrees to the assumption of control of the school board by the Navajo Nation until such time as a legal quorum of the governing board is re-established. Chlichinbeto Community School, Inc. acknowledges that temporary assumption of control would allow the Department to oversee the School, provide technical assistance to sign documents on behalf of the governing board, keep the School in operation, and ensure that daily operations at the School are not impeded, among other matters. Finally, Chlichinbeto Community School, Inc. agrees to waive its right to a due process hearing and requests that the due process hearing be vacated.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (928) 213-8758. Thank you.

Sincerely,
